

RECOGNIZING SEPTEMBER AS NATIONAL PREPAREDNESS MONTH

HON. MADELEINE Z. BORDALLO

OF GUAM

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 7, 2016

Ms. BORDALLO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the month of September as National Preparedness Month. I commend the Guam Homeland Security/Office of Civil Defense (GHS/OCD), first responders and all community organizations, local government agencies, our military partners, and advocates who work to raise awareness and stress the importance of emergency preparedness in our community.

The National Preparedness Month theme for 2016 is "Don't Wait. Communicate. Make your emergency plan today." National Preparedness Month serves as a reminder that we all must take action to prepare, now and throughout the year, for the types of emergencies that could affect us where we live, work, and also where we visit. Guam joins the national campaign throughout the month of September to stress the importance of planning and preparing for natural, man-made and technological disasters. National Preparedness Month gets everyone in the community involved to build a safer, more prepared island community.

I call upon our community to do our part to ensure that we are prepared for any emergency that may occur. Family members may not all be together when a disaster strikes so it is important to work in our individual families to create a plan. National Preparedness Month also encourages businesses, schools and communities to take the steps to prepare.

Additionally, I commend the Guam Homeland Security/Office of Civil Defense along with our island's numerous community partners, organizations and agencies that have come together to actively promote, educate, and provide resources for our people through various programs and initiatives. Guam Homeland Security/Office of Civil Defense carries out the mission of coordinating and facilitating all Government of Guam, military and Federal liaison response agencies and their resources in mitigating, preparing, responding, and recovering from any and all types of emergencies in order to protect the lives, environment, and property of the island of Guam.

On behalf of the people of Guam, I join Guam Homeland Security/Office of Civil Defense and all local government agencies, our military partners, organizations and advocates in recognizing survivors on Guam and commending those who assist in building a stronger, safer and more prepared island community.

HONORING ALABAMA MUSIC
LEGEND JEFF COOK

HON. ROBERT B. ADERHOLT

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 7, 2016

Mr. ADERHOLT. Mr. Speaker, I want to recognize Alabama country music legend Jeff Cook in honor of his birthday and the music festival named in his honor in Guntersville, Alabama.

Cook is a lifetime resident of the Fourth Congressional District. He was born and raised in DeKalb County in Fort Payne. It was in Fort Payne that he formed a band with his cousins Randy Owen and Teddy Gentry. The three young men would first call themselves Wild Country, and then in 1977 they changed the group's name to Alabama.

During the next four decades their group, Alabama, would become one of the best-selling music groups in history. Fans of Alabama have bought more than 75 million albums and singles. They were named the 1980s Entertainers of the Decade.

Then, in 2004, Jeff formed the Allstar Good Time Band. Jeff plays backup to his wife, Lisa, who also sings. Jeff and Lisa spend a great deal of their time in Guntersville, Alabama, which is in the heart of the Fourth Congressional District. It is where, each year, Jeff is honored for his birthday with the Jeff Cook Days.

On behalf of the citizens of the Fourth Congressional District of Alabama, I commend, recognize and honor Jeff for his accomplishments and the work he has done and for being a positive image for Alabama, and for his dedication to his home state. Also, I want to take this opportunity to wish him a very happy birthday and many more.
